St. Francis Hospital & Health Centers

For 80 years, St. Francis has delivered medical care to those in need, with competence and compassion. We've kept pace with the rapid advances in medical science, and we've never lost sight of the vision that brought us to central Indiana in the first place; a dedication to healing the body, mind and spirit.

St. Francis has expanded to better serve our growing community. The development of a new South Campus, with facilities for family practice physicians, diagnostic imaging, medical and radiation oncology, and emergency medicine, will soon feature the latest in OB services, including LDRP rooms and an intensive care nursery. Our cardiac care services at our main campus include state-of-the-art catheterization labs, and are second to none in the Midwest. Our facilities are often used as a world-wide demonstration site for advanced cardiac procedures.

We've introduced new services that are helping patients improve their health and peace of mind. OB Home Health Care offers families the professional nursing skills they find at St. Francis, in the comfort of their home. Mother and baby receive follow-up exams, to ensure everything is going well. Fathers aren't left out either, and we offer advice and answer questions about newborn care.

But what makes our professional care so special is our spirit of caring. A spirit that touches every patient, everyday. Talk with your physician about St. Francis, or call us about the many health programs and services we provide. We really do believe there's more to good care than good medicine.

SAINT MARY
THE WOODS COLLEGE

Saint Mary-of-the-Woods College is the nation's oldest Catholic liberal arts college for women.

FOR AN ATHLETE, IT MEANS FINDING INSPIRATION IN YOUR TEAMMATES' FACES.

FOR A SCHOLAR, IT MEANS SHARING WHAT YOU LEARN.

FOR A LEADER, IT MEANS CULTIVATING THE TALENTS OF OTHERS.

Teamwork. At most colleges, little thought is given to it. But if today's students are to meet the world prepared to make real contributions, they'll need many skills—including the ability to work as part of a team.

Teamwork is an important part of a Saint Meinrad College education. You would expect to find it on our athletic fields. But you'll also see teamwork in our classrooms—where students forge partnerships for intellectual pursuits— and in the communities around us—where, each day, their teamwork and shared sense of purpose are a driving force behind our students' commitment to improving the quality of life for others.

Saint Meinrad College is a private, four-year undergraduate college for Catholic men. Its approach to educating the whole man is supported by a rigorous liberal arts curriculum, opportunities for purposeful community service, a program devoted to the spiritual growth of its students, and a campus-wide commitment to developing Catholic leadership.

St. Elizabeth's

New Beginnings

Offering a full range of maternity, child care, parenting and adoptive placement programs and services.

The St. Elizabeth's difference

Since 1915, Indiana women have looked to St. Elizabeth's for the love, care and personal assistance so necessary during a crisis pregnancy. Today, our dedicated, caring staff helps turn despair into hope.

Everyone at St. Elizabeth's understands how a crisis pregnancy can create problems which call for some of the most significant decisions a woman will ever make. We treat neither the problems nor the decision lightly.

Our staff of social workers cares about women who come to us for help, not only during their pregnancy, but afterwards as well . . . as long as it takes for the mother and infant to begin their new lives together or apart. That's what we mean when we say we offer new beginnings.

Our number one concern is always the welfare of each woman and her child. We understand the pressure she may be facing from family, friends, or other members of the community . . . and often the feeling of being alone, of not knowing where to turn. To such women we offer not only our programs and services but our care and friendship as well. That's the St. Elizabeth's difference!

St. Elizabeth's is a United Way agency operating under the auspices of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis. We serve all pregnant women and single mothers regardless of race, age, creed, marital status, or ability to pay.

Maternity and child care programs

St. Elizabeth's is a licensed child placing agency. Our programs and services usually begin while a woman is pregnant and often uncertain about what she should do.

We offer complete prenatal care to promote a healthy pregnancy and safe delivery . . . postnatal care for both mother and child, including medical care for as long as necessary . . . a loving supportive residential environment . . . extensive one-to-one professional counseling on an ongoing basis . . . various self-help programs designed to enhance self-image through group discussion and activities . . . educational and vocational assistance to help clients prepare to take their rightful place in society as productive citizens . . . various outreach services to help families of pregnant women accept rather than reject them . . . and much more!

arenting programs

Today, more and more adolescent mothers choose to parent their infants rather than place them for adoption. This decision catapults them into an adult world filled with adult responsibilities. Our professional staff fully supports the right of each client to make her own decision concerning her future and that of her child. But without realistic planning for the future, a decision to parent can have disastrous consequences. That's why we offer our Parent And Child Together (PACT) program.

This program helps young mothers to become self-sufficient, knowledgeable, responsible single parents. All PACT participants receive individual and family counseling, as well as training in parenting and life skills. PACT enables young mothers to complete their education and take their place in the work force. In addition, PACT offers residential placement and child care services to mothers and infants who are wards of the Court. Mothers must be under the age of 18 to qualify for residential placement.

doptive placement programs

The most caring and responsible choice a mother sometimes can make is to release her child for adoption. In such cases, we counsel the mother throughout her pregnancy and after delivery place her baby in an adoptive home.

Some new mothers need additional time after delivery to make a stress-free decision whether to parent or place for adoption. Our Tender Care program is especially helpful for these mothers and her infants. It provides short-term care for newborns by placing them in licensed homes. Volunteer parents give each child love and quality care until the baby is placed in a permanent home, either with their birth parent, or with adoptive parents.

All potential adoptive families participate in an adoptive study. St. Elizabeth's also offers both birth and adoptive parents the opportunity to help plan their adoptive placement. Choices range from traditional to open adoptive services.

New Logo

This new symbol, or logogram, for the Church in central and southern Indiana was commissioned by Archbishop Daniel M. Buechlein. He asked Benedictine Father Eric Lies, an artist-calligrapher of Saint Meinrad Archabbey, to fashion a new symbol that would capture the diversity found in the Archdiocese of Indianapolis.

Father Eric, working with Saint Meinrad seminarian David Reinhart, created a graphically strong design with four “views” of the Archdiocese in each quadrant of a cross: an urban landscape, a small town, a farm, and open, hilly countryside. All four vistas were held together in unity by the cross, which touched and embraced each of them.

When Jane Lee, a graphics designer with the Archdiocese’s Catholic Communications Center, began working with the design, she added an arched line around the design and thus fashioned a stained-glass window whose four panes give the viewer four different glimpses of our local Church.

Blue, which has been identified with the Archdiocese at least since its sesquicentennial celebration, was chosen as the “official” color for the logo when it is not printed in black. This particular shade of blue approximates the blue color found in the stained-glass windows of the cathedral church.

The Archdiocese of Indianapolis

The Province of Indianapolis

General History

The Diocese of Vincennes — now the Archdiocese of Indianapolis — was established by Pope Gregory XVI on May 6, 1834. The territory then comprised the entire state of Indiana and the eastern part of Illinois. The latter was separated from the Diocese of Vincennes upon the establishment of the Diocese of Chicago, November 28, 1843.

By decree of Pope Pius IX, January 8, 1857, the northern half of the state became the Diocese of Fort Wayne, the boundaries being that part of the state north of the south lines of Fountain, Montgomery, Boone, Hamilton, Madison, Delaware, Randolph, and Warren counties. The remaining southern half of the state made up the Diocese of Vincennes, embracing 50 counties. It covered an area of 18,479 square miles extending from the north line of Marion and contiguous counties to the Ohio River and from Illinois on the west to Ohio on the east.

The second bishop of Vincennes was permitted by apostolic brief to establish his residence at Vincennes, Madison, Lafayette, or Indianapolis; Vincennes was, however, to remain the see city. This permission, with the subtraction of Lafayette, was renewed to the fourth bishop.

Upon his appointment, the fifth bishop was directed to fix his residence at Indianapolis, although the site of the cathedral and title of the see were continued at Vincennes. By apostolic brief dated March 28, 1898, the title of the diocese was changed to that of "Diocese of Indianapolis," with the episcopal see in the city of Indianapolis. By the same brief, the patron of the diocese was to remain St. Francis Xavier, the title of the Old Cathedral at Vincennes.

The Apostolic Decree of His Holiness Pope Pius XII, creating the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, was issued October 21, 1944. On December 19, 1944, by executorial decree of the papal delegate, the Most Reverend Amleto Giovanni Cicognani, apostolic delegate to the United States, the papal decree of Pope Pius XII was solemnly proclaimed in Saints Peter and Paul Cathedral, elevating Indianapolis to the status of an archdiocese, the state of Indiana becoming the metropolitan area. The dioceses of Evansville and Lafayette-in-Indiana were created by the same decree and, along with the Diocese of Fort Wayne, made suffragan sees of Indianapolis. Upon establishment of the Diocese of Gary on February 25, 1957, it too became a suffragan see.

Parish Life Coordinators

In the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, in accord with the canon law of the Catholic Church, we have developed a pastoral leadership position that we call parish life coordinator. The parish life coordinator is a lay person who has the pastoral care of a parish or mission entrusted to him or her. This lay person works with a priest moderator and a priest minister to provide pastoral and sacramental care to the parish.

The parish life coordinator is responsible for the day-to-day pastoral care, liturgical life, faith development, social services, and administration of the parish. These pastoral responsibilities are assisted by a priest moderator, who serves as a mentor and guide for the parish life coordinator. The priest moderator also supervises and advises the parish life coordinator on matters of administration and parish life.

Recognizing that the administration of the sacraments requires the ministry of an ordained priest, a priest minister is assigned as the sacramental minister and coworker with the parish life coordinator. Working with the parish life coordinator, the priest minister is scheduled for, consulted about, and informed of parish sacramental activities and schedules and is a vitally important member of the parish pastoral leadership.

Learning Christ

Taken from "The Interior Life of the Social Worker", by Rev. Lucian L. Lauerman, Ph.D. National Catholic School of Social Service. The Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C.

Teach me, my Lord, to be gentle in all the events of life: in disappointments, in the thoughtlessness of others, in the insincerity of those I trusted, in the unfaithfulness of those on whom I relied.

Let me put myself aside, to think of the happiness of others, to hide my pains and heartaches, so that I may be the only one to suffer from them.

Teach me to learn from the suffering that comes across my path. Let me so use it that it may mellow me, not harden or embitter me; that it may make me patient, not irritable; that it may make me broad in my forgiveness, not narrow, or haughty and overbearing.

May no one be less good for having come within my influence; no one less pure, less true, less kind, less noble for having been a companion in our journey toward Eternal Life.

As I go my rounds from one distraction to another, let me whisper from time to time a word of love to you. May my life be lived in the supernatural, full of power for good, and strong in its purpose of sanctity.

Petition Prayer for Vocations

For an increase in vocations to the priesthood and religious life, especially in our Archdiocese, We pray to the Lord . . .

That young people in our Archdiocese will respond generously to the call and need for vocations to the priesthood and religious sisters and brothers, We pray to the Lord . . .

That our Most Reverend Archbishop will always have the priests, religious sisters and brothers and dedicated lay people he needs to fulfill his mission of teaching salvation, We pray to the Lord . . .

In thanksgiving for all the priests and religious sisters and brothers, who serve our Archdiocese and this parish and for their special needs and intentions, We pray to the Lord . . .

For all the priest and religious sisters and brothers who serve in our Archdiocese, especially those who are ill or in advanced years, We pray to the Lord . . .

For all the seminarians of our Archdiocese, in their various houses of study, that they have the grace, strength, and courage to persevere, We pray to the Lord . . .

Prayer for Vocations

O God, Who wills not the death of a sinner • but rather that he be converted and live • grant we beseech you • through the intercession of the Blessed Mary ever Virgin • Saint Joseph, her spouse • Blessed Junipero Serra • and all the saints • an increase of laborers for your Church • fellow laborers with Christ to spend and consume themselves for souls • through the same Jesus Christ • Your Son • Who lives and reigns with You • In the unity of the Holy Spirit • God forever • and ever, Amen.

Prayer for the Perseverance of Vocations

O God, you have constituted your only-begotten Son, supreme and eternal Priest for the glory of your majesty and the salvation of mankind: grant that those whom He has chosen ministers and dispensers of His mysteries may be found faithful in fulfilling the ministry they have received.

from which they were shaped.*

*Yet in your way of mercy
you have turned this condition of darkness and death
into a proof of your loving care.*

In your providence you assured Abraham, our father in faith, of a burial place in the land of promise.

You extolled your servant Tobit for his charity in burying the dead.

*You willed that your own Son be laid to rest in a new tomb,

Youth start their pilgrimage of faith

Archbishop sends them off after faith-filled rally & prayer service

by Mary Ann Wurtel

These are the last steps of their pilgrimage. These are the final moments as they prepare for a wonderful journey, their Pope John Paul II, in Denver. Archbishop Daniel M. Bambergh held about 1,000 World Youth Day pilgrims from Indiana and four eastern states during a faith-filled rally and prayer service on Aug. 1 at Reynolds High School in Indianapolis.

Following a spectacular fireworks display which lit up the night sky for many, the faithful gathered into Reynolds' landmark Youth Day theme song and sang the World

World Youth Day events at Denver this weekend with the pope and more than 100,000 youth and young adult pilgrims from 70 countries, 744 from the Archdiocese of Indianapolis.

The archbishop and Bishop William L. Hopt of the Lavater District offered prayers and blessings for the pilgrims during the rally at Reynolds on Monday night.

Also during the rally Reynolds High School's Show Choir performed "Hope is strong but fragile, eternal against religious wars, and World Youth Day pilgrims, other states church."

"As our World Youth Day theme song says, 'We are one body.' You will make us proud to be a Catholic. We are going on a trip, a holy trip. To experience God's presence. God will be moving with you the entire way."

During his reflection, Archbishop Bambergh urged young Catholics to participate more fully in their faith and also encouraged the enthusiastic pilgrims to recognize life.

"Who would be the most ordinary person you know that God would call to be a religious leader or a priest or a nun?" he asked the pilgrims. "Who would it be? Mayor Roush?"

During Christ's lifetime the archbishop said, "There was not one who was not called to be a religious leader or a priest or a nun."

and I am to make that difference in our own day. We are one body. You will make us proud to be a Catholic. We are going on a trip, a holy trip. To experience God's presence. God will be moving with you the entire way."

Reflecting on his personal motto as Archbishop, Bambergh reminded the pilgrims that "On the way of the cross, which is the way of life for us, it is our call to love and of the love of Jesus are just a little ahead of us to give life and salvation to the face of the world where he has his kingdom to rule. When Jesus says, 'Follow me, for I have called you to follow me.' All of us are called to follow him."

ADAPTING TECHNOLOGY TO YOUR INFORMATION NEEDS

Doing more with less is a standard today. That means making hard decisions and fully leveraging today's information management resources.

Using market-leading application packages or developing a custom solution with common programs (e.g. LOTUS, EXCEL, DataEase, Paradox) as well as the more robust database languages (e.g. FOCUS, ORACLE, EXPRESS) on platforms from PCs to mainframes, SIM helps solve immediate problems and prepares you for continuous improvement.

We can also recommend and install the right hardware as well as provide training to make the transition smooth.

For strategic management of your information, think . . .

SIM is proud to provide information management services to the Archdiocese and several of its agencies.
